ClearChoice - Independent sound advice you can trust

Which? Best hearing aid provider overview

Following an extensive survey and the views of over 400 Which? members who had purchased hearing aids in the last 3 years, independent retailers came out top with a customer score of 84%. This score was based on customer satisfaction and recommendation which included levels of service and aftercare.

Are we qualified?

Our Audiologists hold advanced degrees from accredited universities and have special training in the identification, assessment and non-medical treatment of hearing disorders. They complete a full-time internship, pass a demanding national examination and must be fully licensed. This makes our Audiologists the most qualified to advise you on your hearing.

How long have we been helping people with hearing difficulties?

We have 35 years experience and have fitted over ten thousand digital hearing instruments. An audiologist who has fitted thousands of patients is more likely to recognise and solve problems. Fitting hearing aids correctly is both an art and a science. Our Audiologists will maximise the potential of your hearing instruments by using all of the features of your ideal aid, while the less skilled might fail to activate up to 50% of the hearing aid's capabilities.

How will you determine what is best for my hearing situation?

Our Audiologist will take a detailed history of your hearing problem, your expectations, and lifestyle. In addition a thorough tone and speech testing assessment will be carried out. Measurements for comfortable hearing levels are also tested.

Our comprehensive testing is to improve your hearing sensibility and re-establish normal hearing perception.

Are there any hearing aid manufacturers you recommend?

As Independent Audiologists, we work with all the hearing aid manufacturers from around the world. Every hearing loss is unique and one manufacturer product line may not meet the needs of everyone! As we work with the world's choice, we are in the best position possible to select the correct device that will match your needs.

The amazing video otoscope

Let's show you what's happening inside...

Our state-of-the-art video otoscope system can show inside your ear canal right up to your ear drum, all visible on the colour screen.

See inside your ear like never before, with no discomfort whatsoever!

Video otoscopy allows us to clearly visualise the ear canal and ear drum by projecting an image onto a computer monitor.

Using video otoscopy, we can see first hand any conditions such as the presence or build up of wax, or debris in the canal that may cause problems with your hearing.

Give your ears a clean bill of health!

Video otoscopy ultimately provides both patients and audiologists with a greater understanding and appreciation of what is happening inside your ear.

Our free Audiometric Test will help us identify your hearing difficulties

If you want to know more about how better hearing can be achieved - your local Hearing Aid Audiological experts will give you the best advice FREE. There is never any obligation and all the valuable information is available to you.

FREE AUDIOMETRIC TEST

Following a discussion on the history of your hearing and a brief ear examination, our Hearing Aid Audiologist will carry out a free comprehensive hearing test. You are asked to respond to a variety of frequencies which allow the Hearing Aid Audiologist to plot your results on a graph. With the results explained, the test is over... it's as simple as that!

We often find it is a great help when testing your hearing to have a familiar voice with you. Part of our full hearing assessment is to present speech in what is called a Speech Clarity Test. A family member or close friend is ideal and they are free to help you with the hearing test as well as ask questions which you may not have thought of yourself.

Town leader is ousted in shock move

By Loughlan Campbell

DIDCOT Town Council has a new leader, after Charlie Robertson was replaced by veteran councillor Bill Service over the weekend.

In a surprise move, the council's Conservative group - who hold a majority on the council - decided to elect Cllr Service as the new leader, following a secret ballot vote in which he, Cllr Robertson and Alan Thompson were put forward as candidates.

The vote, which took place at Didcot Conservatives' AGM meeting at the Conservative Club on Saturday, was brought forward after a call for a change in leadership at the council.

The move ends a somewhat-stormy time for the council with Cllr Robertson, who has been embroiled in public disputes with residents over the suspected sale of the town's allotments and the delays in bringing forward the council's budget.

Speaking to the Guardian, Cllr Service said: "I'm absolutely delighted to be elected town council leader for Didcot.

"It's a big honour to be elected by your peers and I'm really looking forward to settling into my new role.

Cllr Service, who previously served as leader back in 2010, added his best wishes to departing Cllr Robertson.

He said: "Charlie took it in good grace. We have to remember it was only his first year in local politics.

"He put himself forward for the role last summer and we were very confident. He has shown a lot of pride in role as town council leader."

The newly-elected leader said that the council's finance and general purpose, environment, personnel and planning

Guinea pigs saved from likely death

By Alex Ballinger

FIVE guinea pigs were found dumped in a recycling box after being left to die at a regular fly-tipping spot in Abingdon.

One of the animals died but the remaining four are being cared for by the RSPCA.

Some of them have since been found to be pregnant after they were discovered by a dog walker on Saturday, March 12, in Masefield Crescent. The walker at first thought nothing of the plastic recycling box dumped in the undergrowth but the dog drew attention to the animals.

RSPCA animal collection officer Grace Mead said: "I was just shocked that they were still alive.

"They could easily have just never been found and been left out there to die in the wild – they are so lucky to have survived.

"The four poor creatures were all starving too and tucked into the food we gave them straight away.

"Thankfully, they are doing really well at a great rescue in Bedfordshire and will be looking for their loving new forever homes soon."

Two of the guinea pigs were immediately taken to a local vet, while the RSPCA was called to rescue the two remaining animals.

RSPCA inspector Jamie Godfrey returned to the scene the following day and managed to find the fourth guinea pig which had gone missing.

Ms Mead said: "It's just really sad that people let it get this bad and do not turn to us or other rescues to ask for help.

"Instead, they leave animals helpless like this fending for themselves in the wild where they are sadly just unlikely to make it.

"Although these poor animals are now safe, we could have been dealing with a much worse scenario here and sadly one of the original five pigs has already lost their life.

"This could easily have been avoided and we would urge people to always come forward and to ask for help when they need it."

Anyone wanting to adopt one of the guinea pigs or their babies can register their interest at Guinea Pig Rescue and Rehome in Dunstable, Bedfordshire by visiting freewebs.com/guineapigrescueandrehome.

Arrests of children for firearm offences on rise in the region

ARRESTS of children for firearm offences have risen across the Thames Valley in recent years, it has been revealed after figures were released this week.

A total of 39 children were arrested on suspicion of firearm offences in 2015, up from 34 in 2014 and 30 on the previous year.

The offences included possession of a shotgun with intent to danger life, possession of an imitation firearm with intent to cause fear of violence, and possession of a weapon for the discharge of a noxious liquid, gas or electrical incapacitation device.

In 2015, eight boys were charged with firearm offences, 10 in 2014 and seven in 2013.

Head of firearms at Thames Valley Police, Superintendant Steve Williams, said: "Any offences involving firearms are very worrying, particularly when they were offences involving people under the age of 18.

"We will continue to minimise the risk to the public, particularly with the criminal use of firearms throughout the Thames Valley, and we will treat anyone carrying a firearm, be it real or imitation, very seriously and will seek to prosecute them where it is deemed appropriate."

The figures were obtained after Freedom of Information requests were sent to every police force in the UK by the Press Association.

Thames Valley Police also revealed five girls had been arrested in 2015, one in 2014 and three in 2013.

A spokesman for the National Police Chiefs Council said: "Firearm offences in the UK still account for less than 0.2 per cent of total recorded crime.

"These offences reflect a broad range of crimes which can include air weapons or even possession of a BB gun if used in criminal circumstances."

Supt Williams said: "We are working closely with partner agencies to safeguard children who have been engaged in this type of criminal activity to prevent further offending."

Large rise in incidents being caught on CCTV

By Loughlan Campbell

FIGURES have shown a dramatic rise in the number of incidents in Didcot spotted on the town's CCTV cameras.

From October to December last year, there were 354 CCTV-supported incidents in the town - a 52 per cent increase on the previous three months, which saw 186 incidents.

The three most commonly monitored incidents in the town are observation, notifications for police to keep on eye out for, missing persons and anti-social behaviour or nuisance.

Across the four main towns of Didcot, Wallingford, Thame and Henley in South Oxfordshire, the cameras picked up 50 incidents of anti-social behaviour, with 42 of these incidents occurring in Didcot.

Margaret Davies, Didcot town and South Oxfordshire district councillor, said: "It's fair to say these figures show that the cameras really are doing their job to help reduce crime in Didcot.

"These cameras help provide evidence packs that leads to arrests and they provide a significant helping hand in keeping the town safe."

Across the same period, there were 14 arrests in Didcot in total as a result of the footage captured from the cameras, which was the largest of the four towns surveyed and accounted for 46 per cent of arrests made in the period.

Eleven evidence packs were compiled as a result of the footage surveyed in the town.

The town council contributes £8,500 per year towards the service.

Des Healy, the town's mayor, said: "These figures justify the financial support that the town council provides for this vital service every year.

"These incidents would not have been recorded and dealt with had it not been for the cameras that we have.

"The most important thing is keeping people safe."

According to the newly released data, the most popular time for the town's CCTV cameras to be called into action was between the hours of 3.30pm and 11.30pm, with the cameras used 531 times between those hours over the course of the three months.

Concerns have been raised that the police, who also contribute to local CCTV camera funding, could drop the amount they provide, leading to further burdens upon town councils to keep the service going.

Cllr Davies added: "Police are considering dropping their contribution to local CCTV cameras.

"They provide a vital service and I think we'd have to try and pick up the amount if police dropped the funding."

The Orchard Centre shopping centre also provides its own cameras, which is not taken into account by the figures.

'Good' school

CLIFTON HAMPDEN: Clifton Hampden Primary School has been rated 'good' in its first Ofsted report in five and a half years.

The school, in High Street, was given the rating in the report published on March 16 after the education facility was assessed on February 23.

The report states the school continues to be good since its last inspection in November 2010.

Road closure

DIDCOT: Haydon Road will be closed for two days next month to allow Oxfordshire County Council to carry out carriageway maintenance.

Vehicles will not be able to drive down the road on April 18 and 19 to allow the local authority to carry out the work with the council recommending drivers to use Station Road, Foxhall Road and Broadway as an alternate route.

Mayor's party

DIDCOT: Residents are invited to head down to Didcot's Marlborough Club this Saturday for the annual Mayor's party.

Councillor Des Healy is inviting Didcot's revellers to head down to the event to raise money for the Royal British Legion and South & Vale Carers.

Music will be provided by Finding Henry and the Crimps and tickets are available from Didcot Town Council.

Service takes over as leader

committee line-ups would remain the same until May.

Cllr Robertson, who took the role last May after being elected a town councillor in the council elections, has experienced a tumultuous time during his spell in charge.

The youthful councillor looked to review the town's five allotment sites back in November, and the Guardian has previously reported that this was due to plans to sell off one of the sites.

Despite repeated attempts to get in touch with Cllr Robertson, the former leader did not respond to the allegations and a Didcot Allotment Action Group was formed early this year in protest against the plans earlier this year.

He was then involved in another debacle over the council's failed attempts to present a budget to the full council on three multiple occasions and was accused of forgetting to attend a budget meeting earlier this year in which Labour councillor Margaret Davies accused him of a 'lack of leadership."

Speaking to the Guardian on Tuesday, she said: "I did foresee this coming. It's been quite difficult for an inexperienced leader to keep things along the straight and narrow.

"You really need a big background knowledge of the town in that role. Bill has this in spades.

"I'm looking forward to Bill's time as a leader. I think he really understands what the role is."

Neville Harris, an independent councillor on the council said: "The Conservative Group does not elect the leader of Didcot Town Council, the council itself does.

"That the nominee of the majority group on the council will be foisted upon the council is evident if past experience is anything to go by."

Both Cllrs Robertson and Thompson declined to comment on the leadership change.

Bicester hotels fail new child exploitation test

THREE hotels have failed a new police initiative that saw a plain-clothes police officer and a 15-year-old girl attempt to book a double hotel room for the night as part of a child sexual exploitation project.

The trial was held as part of National Child Sexual Exploitation Day on Friday, March 18, and aimed to test the reaction of front-of-house staff.

Of the seven Bicester hotels visited, three failed the test.

Sgt Steve Willis, of Bicester Police Station, said: "The results from the operation will be used to create further training that we can deliver in partnership to the hotels, as well as promote the Hotel Watch scheme in the town."

The hotels failed the test by not asking for ID from the customers to make the booking.

The Hotel Watch scheme aims to create links between the hotel industry, Thames Valley Police and councils to prevent children and adults developing inappropriate relationships.

Seven men were jailed for a combined 95 years in 2013 for grooming, sexually abusing and prostituting young girls in Oxford.

MP hits out at council's study into air quality

By Loughlan Campbell

A SOUTH Oxfordshire District Council (SODC) study looking into the idea of closing Wallingford Bridge to cars and banning on-street parking from a busy Watlington street has come under fire from MP John Howell.

Dr Howell, who represents the Henley constituency, has criticised the proposals - which are part of SODC's Low Emission Strategy 2016 - stating that banning cars from Wallingford Bridge at peak times was 'a scheme to punish drivers'.

The local authority's public consultation into the plans ended on Monday.

The proposed move comes following a report from Harwell-based environment consultants Ricardo-AEA.

According to the study, banning cars from the bridge could reduce emissions by 12 per cent.

Dr Howell said: "Any action taken across the district as a whole should be proportionate.

"In a rural area such as this, the car is not a luxury, it is a necessity.

"Schemes which simply seek to punish drivers rather than tackle the problems are not required."

The study also considers the option of banning on-street parking from Couching Street and Shirburn Street in Watlington.

However, the idea was questioned by Watlington Town Council due to fears that it will lead to more HGVs coming through the town, already a staple of the town's traffic due to its proximity to the M40.

In Watlington and Wallingford, the streets looked at in the study have high levels of air pollution, with air quality in both towns believed to be 25 per cent above the air quality limit.

Tony Harbour, SODC cabinet member for environmental health, said: "This is not an action plan – the district council needs to know what residents think of the ideas before investigating further if and how they could be implemented.

"We would have to work with other organisations like the county council if many of the actions are to be put in place."

The results of the consultation will be revealed later this year.

Fire crews cut two from cars in Easter accidents

By Alex Ballinger

TWO people had to be cut from their cars in two separate crashes on Oxfordshire roads on Easter Sunday.

The first took place on Wheatley Road, between Wheatley and Garsington, at 11.24am when a Land Rover and a Volkswagen Golf collided.

A woman driver of one of the vehicles had to be cut from the vehicle by fire crews.

Crew manager Lewis Mahony, of Oxfordshire County Council's Fire and Rescue Service, said: "This is an excellent example of seatbelts saving lives - both passengers and drivers were wearing seatbelts in this case and the results are clearly evident.

"Had they not been, this incident would have had much larger consequences for the people involved."

The firefighters successfully freed the woman using specialist cutting equipment and she was taken to hospital by ambulance. The road was closed to traffic by Thames Valley Police during the operation.

A second incident, a three-car collision, happened on the A34 northbound, just before the Weston-on-the-Green junction, after a sudden downpour of heavy rain.

Fire crews were called at 3.27pm to the northbound side of the road where the three cars had collided.

Six of those involved had no serious injuries but a seventh person had to be freed from a car using cutting equipment.

Emergency services closed three of the four lanes on the approach to junction nine to carry out the rescue, but the road was reopened within an hour.

Incident commander Pete Mackay, of Bicester Fire Station, said: "Incidents like this highlight the importance of drivers adapting to the weather whilst travelling.

"Fortunately, due to approaching the junction, the vehicles speeds were significantly slower and prevented this incident from being worse.

"We would actively encourage everyone to take care and leave extra room especially in these road conditions."

Man is jailed over abortion bid

AN OXFORDSHIRE man has been jailed for two years after buying pills to cause a miscarriage and trying to pressure his girlfriend into having an abortion.

James George, of Oxford Road, Old Chalford, near Chipping Norton, pleaded guilty to buying a poisonous or noxious pill to cause a miscarriage at Oxford Magistrates' Court on February 22.

He was sentenced at Swindon Crown Court on Friday, March 18.

The 45-year-old's partner became pregnant in August 2014, but George changed his mind about wanting a family and ordered 'abortion pills' three times on the Internet, having them delivered to his home.

• James George

Detective Constable Jane Tregurtha, of Oxfordshire's domestic abuse unit, said: "George put the victim under a lot of pressure to have a termination.

"He went to great lengths, researching abortion websites, phoning clinics and took the victim to her GP to discuss a termination."

The victim had made it clear to George she wanted to have the baby.

But he still intended to give her the pills once he had persuaded her to change her mind.

Det Con Tregurtha added: "Very sadly the victim lost her baby in October 2014. I hope the sentence enables her to have a sense of closure following this difficult and deeply distressing time in her life."

George was also issued with an indefinite restraining order to prevent him from contacting her.

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

House ruined in Eynsham fire

• The house after the fire

By Alex Ballinger

A HOUSE in Eynsham was reduced to a shell when it was engulfed in flames over the Easter weekend.

Fire crews were called to Cassington Road at 2.50am on Saturday and battled a fierce fire with flames exiting the first-floor window and the roof.

The blaze was so intense firefighters could not enter the property, but fortunately no one was injured in the incident.

Incident commander, station manager Darran Hookway, said: "Initial crews were faced with a well-developed fire that was spreading quickly to other rooms within the house. Due to the intensity of the fire and the extent of fire spread, the whole house soon became involved.

"The cause of this fire is under investigation and our fire investigation team are working with Thames Valley Police."

Fire crews were also called to a flat in Oxford on Good Friday when a family of four was forced to flee the kitchen when a fire broke out.

The fire started at about 8am when a bag was placed on top of the cooker hob which had been left on. It was confined to the kitchen because the occupiers closed the door.

One woman was treated for smoke inhalation at the scene.

According to the fire service, the family were forced to find alternative accommodation with family and friends over the Easter weekend.

Station manager Paul Molloy said: "If you have a plan of what to do in the event of a fire, it can save your life and minimise the damage to your property.

"The simple act of closing a door can potentially protect you and your family for a sufficient time to allow you to make your escape and can dramatically reduce the effect the fire has on your home."

Toddler's mum charged with murder after arrest in Uganda

THE mum of 20-month-old toddler Sarah Dahane has been charged with her daughter's murder after she was arrested in Uganda by the country's National Police in a joint operation with Thames Valley Police on March 9.

Angela Whitworth, 43, formerly of Herald Way in Bicester, appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Thursday charged with Sarah's murder after she was found dead at her home in Bicester on May 16, 2013.

Last month, police launched a new appeal offering a £10,000 reward for any information that would help officers with their investigation. Sarah's dad Nabil Dahane gave an emotional plea for anyone to help find Sarah's killer.

• 20-month-old Sarah Dahane and her father Nabil Dahane

Senior investigating officer Detective Superintendent Ian Hunter said: "Thames Valley Police made a public appeal for information on February 25 to enable the progression of the investigation.

"I would like to thank the public and media in the UK, Kenya and Uganda for sharing our appeal so widely on social media, the response has been very important."

He added: "I would also like to thank our police colleagues in Uganda and Kenya and the liaison officers from the National Crime Agency for the significant support and assistance they have provided to us throughout the investigation.

"We will continue to work closely with the Crown Prosecution Service as the legal process continues through the courts."

Whitworth has been remanded in custody and appeared at Oxford Crown Court yesterday.

Teacher runs half marathon for Skye cause

A SOUTH Oxfordshire mum is set to push herself to her limits to raise money for an Abingdon cancer charity.

Grace Lancaster, of Moulsford, near Wallingford, was inspired to run the Reading Half Marathon on Sunday after meeting Skye Hall and his family when her daughter Lily was ill in hospital.

Blue Skye Thinking was set up after Skye died in 2014 from the side-effects of his treatment for an aggressive brain tumour, aged five.

Ms Lancaster, 42, said: "I gained first-hand experience of suffering from cancer and felt hugely inspired by Skye."

Ms Lancaster is hoping to raise £1,000. A languages teacher at Moulsford Prepatory School, she will also be running the Children's Green Park Challenge with her other daughter Eve.

Waste site tour

SOUTH OXON: People from South Oxfordshire can join a tour to find out what happens to their waste.

It came after the incinerator, operated by waste firm Viridor, opened at Ardley, near Bicester, last summer.

The incinerator burns 300,000 tonnes of non-recyclable waste each year and generates enough electricity to power 38,000 homes, which is sold to the National Grid.

A tour of the waste plant has been organised by South Oxfordshire District Council, and is set to take place on Tuesday, June 7, from 10am to noon.

For more information, call 01235 540566.

Burglary warning

BICESTER: Residents are being urged to remain "extra vigilant" after an attempted burglary in Caversfield.

Police said thieves struck at a property in Thompson Drive between March 18 and 21.

They smashed conservatory doors in an attempt to get into the property.

It is not clear if anything was stolen.

Anyone with information should call Bicester Rural Police Team via the police enquiry centre on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Burner could heat town's eco homes

A GRANT of £50,000 has been awarded to a council to carry out further research into using surplus heat from an incinerator to heat eco homes.

Cherwell District Council is working with sustainability charity Bioregional to look at harnessing heat from the Ardley burner to warm the 6,000 homes at Bicester's eco settlement.

This is the second grant the council has received from Department of Energy and Climate Change (DECC) to fund the project – it got £83,000 in 2014.

By Jayne Smith

The Ardley facility, which is operated by waste firm Viridor, is about a mile from the North West Bicester eco town site. It already generates enough electricity to power 38,000 homes.

It is proposed that an insulated pipe network could transfer heat to the homes.

The council said the initiative was energy efficient and could reduce bills and the town's carbon footprint.

The latest grant will be used to look at the financial viability of the project and develop a business model. It will also consult with organisations including Oxfordshire County Council, Viridor and eco town developer A2 Dominion.

Council leader Barry Wood said Cherwell was committed to exploring the feasibility of the project.

• Council study continues to look into using incinerator's excess heat to warm homes

He said: "The concept of using the heat generated from the disposal of household waste supports the concept of sustainable living in North West Bicester and would create a cost-effective and renewable source of energy.

"This is a pilot project so we are taking time to investigate the project in depth to ensure it is viable and can deliver all of the proposed objectives.

"If successful, this could not only revolutionise the heat network in Bicester but for the entire country as it could create a template for others to follow."

The £200m incinerator, commissioned by Oxfordshire County Council to save money on landfill taxes, has had a controversial history.

Residents in Bicester and surrounding villages opposed the facility, raising concerns over traffic and pollution.

However, despite taking the issue to the High Court and a call-in by the Government, the building of the incinerator went ahead.

It fully opened last summer and can burn up to 350,000 tonnes of non-recyclable waste each year.

Royal theme for carnival

BICESTER'S carnival is set to be a grand affair because this year's theme is royalty.

Taking place on Saturday, June 25, the carnival will also mark Armed Forces Day.

It comes in the same year as the Queen celebrates her 90th birthday.

A procession of decorated floats, cars, carts and people will rumble through the town. People are urged to get into the swing of the event and dress up in a royal theme for the procession

Once the procession reaches Pingle Field, the mayor will declare the carnival open.

There will be a range of stalls and activities running from noon to 5pm, at Pingle Field, off Pingle Drive.

During the afternoon, the carnival arena will be packed with demonstrations and performances by local dance and sports groups and other organisations, as well as the military displays.

The carnival was revived by town and district councillor Debbie Pickford in 1999.

Groups, businesses and organisations who want to run a stall at the event have weeks to apply. Pitches are free for charities and applications must be with the town council by Friday, May 13.

Contact Bicester Town Council on 01869 252915.

Dark Blues' women's crew storm to win in Boat Race

• Oxford's women spray the champagne after their triumph (all pictures courtesy of Getty images)

• The Cambridge Women nearly sink

• Cambridge's men celebrate their victory

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD University Women's Boat Club triumphed over Cambridge in difficult conditions in the 71st Women's Boat Race on Easter Sunday.

Their victory came in front of 250,000 people on the River Thames in London to make it four in a row over their bitter rivals.

President Maddy Badcott led her team to victory on the 4.2-mile course, while the Oxford men fell to a more-experienced Cambridge squad that took the win in the 162nd men's race.

Badcott's eight held their own on the rough waters of the River Thames in the opening race, overcoming a stuttering start to cruise to the finish whilst their rival's boat teetered on the edge of sinking before making it over the line a minute later.

The two boats came within inches of clashing on several occasions before Oxford stole a length's lead approaching Harrods Depository.

At Middlesex Station, the teams were presented with devilishly choppy waters and Dark Blues' cox Morgan Baynham-Williams made the bold decision to head for shallow waters.

The move proved a masterstroke as Cambridge stayed put in the middle where the water was toughest, and Oxford glided away into the distance.

Oxford still trail Cambridge in the official standings with the Light Blues in front on 41 wins, 11 clear of Oxford.

Cambridge were the favourites heading into the men's race, looking for revenge after three consecutive defeats.

Oxford, who had only one returning rower in Jamie Cook, held their own at the start but as the crews moved up the river in the tempestuous conditions, Cambridge slowly started to pull a boat's length clear.

The Dark Blues managed to hold the distance as the crews raced underneath Hammersmith Bridge.

And when the water got choppier, Cambridge pulled a further two lengths clear.

Oxford's inexperienced side wilted and the race was handed to the Light Blues, who crossed the finish three lengths clear.

The win makes it 82-79 to Cambridge in the overall standings of the race.

Oxford take solace from victory in the animal version of old rivalry

THE defeated Oxford men can take some positivity in that their four-legged fellow stormed to victory in the Goat Race on Sunday.

In the eighth annual contest of the grass munchers - which sees two pygmy goats race to the finish at Spitalfields City Farm in Shoreditch - the Oxford goat claimed the spoils in a tightly-fought encounter.

Hundreds turned out to watch the animal version of the historic rivalry.

The Oxford goat had looked certain for defeat but the dark blue galloped its way to the win after the Cambridge contestant got distracted at the finish line.

Man, 61, is jailed for hotel attacks

By Jayne Smith

A MAN has been jailed after he walked into a hotel in Thame and assaulted five people.

Peter Butler, 61, of Glenham Road, Thame, was jailed for 16 months and ordered to pay £1,500 in damages.

He was described by police as 'completely out of control', attacking anyone who tried to stop him hitting a 'defenceless woman'.

Butler admitted three charges of assault occasioning actual bodily harm, ABH, and two counts of common assault, at a hearing at Oxford Crown Court in February.

He was sentenced last week at the same court.

Police said Butler walked into the Swan Hotel, in Swan Walk, Thame, at about 12.45am on Sunday, January 24, and walked up to a woman in her 40s, who was known to him, and punched her in the head several times.

Butler then punched a 51-year-old man and a 25-year-old woman, who are both staff at the pub, police said.

Butler then attempted to hit the man with a bottle before chasing after the woman in her 40s, pushing her into the men's toilet, where he was caught on CCTV footage assaulting her.

During the attack, he also assaulted a 25-year-old man, and another 51-year-old man, who were also staff at the pub, as they tried to protect the woman and throw Butler out of the premises.

The woman in her 40s suffered bruising to her face, neck and arms, and also suffered a head injury.

Butler was arrested on January 24 and was charged the following day.

Another charge of witness intimidation was dropped at court.

PC Aaron Walker, who is based at Thame police station, said: "This was a terrifying incident in which the woman was viciously assaulted by Butler.

"Butler was completely out of control attacking anyone who tried to stop his assault on this defenceless woman."

He added: "I would hope that the victim is able to move on from this assault which has left her deeply affected"

"I would also like to thank the others who were assaulted for their bravery in trying to protect the victim from the sustained attack by Butler."

Store to transfer

BICESTER: The Tesco store in Pingle Drive will close for the last time at 8pm on Wednesday, April 13, and its new supermarket at Bicester Business Park, off the A41 Oxford Road, will open the following morning at 8am.

Bicester Village will then take over the Pingle Drive site where it plans to demolish the supermarket building and build about 30 stores and car parking spaces.

The scheme also includes £11m of road improvements in and around Pingle Drive.

Council relocate

BICESTER: Staff at Cherwell District Council's Market Square office have packed their paperwork, phones and computers ready to move into their new base.

This week, the staff have been operating on an appointment-only basis at Bicester Town Council's offices in Garth house.

They will reopen for business in Franklins House, in Pioneer Square, from Monday, April 4.

Cherwell leader Cllr Barry Wood said it was an "exciting time" for the council.

Pop-up store open

BICESTER: Shoe supplier to the stars Joseph Cheaney & Sons has opened a pop-up store at Bicester Village.

It opened last Friday and will be in place at the designer outlet for seven weeks. The firm's customers included actor Jude Law.

Residents have say on town growth

THAME residents have made the first moves in setting out how they want the town to grow in the future.

At this year's town council annual town meeting, part of the session was devoted to discussing the "threats and opportunities" for Thame.

A workshop, hosted by Miller Research, saw the audience split into two groups to look at the town's infrastructure and marketing and events.

Among the concerns raised was whether the new Tesco supermarket should be built on the ring road, how different parts of the town could be linked and improving signage for parking.

The meeting, held last week, was also a chance for Cllr Nichola Dixon to talk about her year as mayor.

She said: "It has been a true honour to be mayor of this lovely town. In that time, I have met some remarkable people who are working so hard to make our town better for everyone.

"Of the many wonderful things I have taken part in, the highlights for me include opening the town's new skate park and witnessing the strong sense of community amongst Thame's young people, being a representative of our town at civic events across the county, and developing the strong relationship the town has with RAF Halton."

During the meeting, an appeal was made for help at this year's MP Cricket Academy's street cricket festival in June, and people are needed to help form a new management team to take over the running of the annual Charities Fair in November.

New library is set to open at Castle Quarter

OXFORD'S new temporary central library opened at its home in the Castle Quarter on Tuesday.

The Central Library closed on February 27 while the Westgate Shopping Centre undergoes a £440m rebuild.

Once finished, the improved library in the new building will feature a new foyer, a refurbished and extended children's library and new windows overlooking Bonn Square and Castle Street.

Oxfordshire County Council's cabinet member for cultural and community services, Lorraine Lindsay- Gale, said: "A lot of work has gone into getting the new facility in the Castle Quarter ready for use and we hope people will enjoy our new setting.

"Everybody in the library service is looking forward to making the most of their new home before we move back to our normal headquarters 2017."

The library's home is set to be closed for around 18 months, until the new shopping centre opens in October next year.

After it is finished, the new centre will be an extended 800,000 square feet shopping complex – the size of about 10 football pitches - and will create around 3,400 retail jobs.

Plan to flatten home for houses rejected

By Alex Ballinger

CONTENTIOUS plans to demolish a house to make way for the building of seven houses and flats in North Hinksey have been unanimously rejected by a council against the recommendation of planning officers.

The scheme for the house in North Hinksey Lane had been opposed by local residents and councillors since it was first published in November 2013, because of 'over-development' and the impact on local wildlife.

A total of 81 letters of objection were received by Vale of White Horse District Council from 31 different properties, alongside a petition signed by 170 people.

Vale ward councillor for North Hinksey, Debby Hallett, said: "This version of the application is still an over-development of the site.

"It is still not in sympathy with the character for the area, and still doesn't offer enough amenities to those who will live there nor preserve those of the near neighbours.

"In the Botley area, we've tried to preserve the character of the area by resisting inappropriate development, and are failing.

"We need a vision of what we want for our communities and preserve what is beautiful about our area."

The council threw out the plans at a committee meeting at The Beacon in Wantage last Wednesday because the development did not fit in with the 'semi-rural' character of the area.

Amended plans included two three-bed houses and five two-bed flats and 14 parking spaces on the site of 34 North Hinksey Lane.

The scale of the development was reduced from 10 flats in new designs submitted last year.

The Vale council also received concerns from the Oxfordshire Badger Group.

Group chair Julie Hammett said: "There is evidence that there is a badger sett on the site and badgers paths are noticeable.

"I look forward to confirmation that the Vale will deal with this important matter as a matter of urgency and ensure that protected species are not put at risk."

Council officer Cathie Scotting had recommended the application for approval.

In a report compiled ahead of the meeting, she said: "I do not consider that the harm to the local character from the current scheme would be of that weight and therefore the application is recommended for approval."

A statement from architects Towle Spurring Hardy, on behalf of Abingdon-based developers Saxonville Ltd, said: "It is considered that the proposed development would be appropriate for the site in its context and would be a stylish architectural complement to the area without detracting from its character."

The man said he had been punched from behind and found he was bleeding.

Police and ambulance were called and he was taken to hospital, although Thames Valley Police said his injuries were not thought to be life-threatening.

Extra patrols were on duty in the area throughout Saturday.

Anyone with concerns or with any information is asked to call Thames Valley Police on 101.

It was held at the Wesley Memorial Church Hall in New Inn Hall Street from 7pm.

The centres are normally open from 8am to 5pm every other day, including Sundays.

'Dragon' fiery help in potholes battle

By Loughlan Campbell

A FIRE-BREATHING 'Dragon' is being used to combat Oxfordshire's potholes, with more than 2,000 repairs fixed in the last two years.

The 'Dragon', a Swedish pothole patcher, has earned its nickname due to its fire-emitting nozzle that it uses to dry out potholes.

The machine was in action on Thursday at Plum Lane in Shipton-under-Wychwood, near Witney, where a pothole was repaired.

Skanska, Oxfordshire County Council's highways maintenance contractor, is using the device to fix the county's potholes.

On average, the machine repairs 20 defects a day and has been known to fill up 44 potholes in one shift.

Cllr David Nimmo Smith, the county council's cabinet member for environment, said: "This technology prevents damage and helps repair roads faster and so contributes to our commitment to maintain our roads in a cost-efficient way.

"We are pleased to be working with our contractor to bring innovation to our highways service."

The Dragon carries out its work by first drying the affected area of the road and then sealing it with hot bitumen (tarmac) emulsion.

The work leaves the surface ready to be used by traffic in just a matter of minutes.

Traditionally, potholes are repaired by two people and a lorry, with the fractures being manually filled by them with hot tarmac.

The cost of this process is usually about £70, which is £60 more expensive than using 'The Dragon' which can cost as little as £10.

In addition to repairing potholes, The Dragon can also prevent them as the machine can also seal cracks and provide a thin overlay to minor surface damage.

Paul Durham, business director at Skanska, said: "Where potholes have appeared, it is a lot faster than traditional repair techniques."

He added: "On average, it treats six times more potholes per shift. It reduces the need for traffic management systems, which means we can keep the roads running and avoid delays to motorists."

Man to face trial on rape and trafficking allegations

AN OXFORD man is set to stand trial at Oxford Crown Court next month after appearing last Thursday charged with raping, trafficking and prostituting a child in the city.

Azad Miah, 37, of Riverside Court, was arrested last Tuesday and charged on Wednesday with one count of rape, one count of conspiracy to rape, one count of trafficking, and one count of prostituting a child under 18 – between November 11, 2005 and March 28, 2007.

He appeared at Oxford Magistrates' Court on Thursday and he is set to appear at Oxford Crown Court for a trial starting April 22.

Salik Miah, 34, of Ferry Hinksey Road, Oxford, was previously charged with four counts of sexual offences - one count of conspiracy to rape, one count of rape, one count of arranging or facilitating the sexual exploitation of a child aged 13 to 17, and one count of arranging or facilitating the travel of another person with a view to exploitation – between January 3, 2005, and March 27, 2007.

Salik Miah was due to stand trial earlier this year but this was delayed until June 20.

Knives campaign by widow finds success

By Alex Ballinger

A CAMPAIGN by the widow of an Abingdon stabbing victim has marked a major victory after 11 retail giants agreed to improve knife safety.

Gulsen Alkan launched the online campaign last month after her husband Justin Skrebowski, 61, was stabbed to death while shopping for balloons in Poundland on December 7 - his wife's birthday.

Home Secretary Theresa May announced in Parliament last Wednesday that shops had agreed to store knives more safely.

• Flowers were left outside the Bury Street store

Mrs Alkan, who lives in North Oxford, said: "I cannot say that this makes me happy because I wish so very much that it had never happened and that Justin was with me and our twins now, but it is the only thing that has brought me peace.

"December 7 is my birthday. It's also the day that my husband was killed.

"Police told me that Justin had no chance that day, it all happened so quickly he didn't even see the attacker's face.

"It's hard to believe that it was that easy to pick up a knife."

Mrs Alkan launched the online petition directed at Mrs May on Tuesday, February 16, calling for knife laws to be changed. More than 52,000 people have supported it.

Supermarkets Lidl, Tesco, Morrisons, Asda, Waitrose and Sainsbury's have signed up to change the way they sell knives alongside John Lewis, Wilko, Argos and Amazon UK. Poundland has also added its name to the list of retailers.

Mrs May said: "Knife crime has a devastating impact on victims, families and communities, and I am determined to do all I can to prevent it.

"Retailers have a vital role to play in this fight and I welcome today's commitment. Knives have no place on our streets."

Mr Skrebowski had gone to the bargain store in Bury Street to buy balloons for his young twins.

Trevor Joyce, 36, of Franklyn Close, Abingdon, appeared at Oxford Crown Court by video link charged with murder on March 3 and was due to enter a plea, but the hearing was postponed to a later date because psychiatric reports were not ready. His trial is set to start on June 6.

Mrs Alkan met with Government minister Karen Brady in Westminster last month alongside Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood.

Ms Blackwood said: "Gulsen and everyone who has signed her petition should feel proud that they have successfully persuaded the Home Office to act on this."

She added: "Locals were shocked to learn that Justin's killer was able to simply pick up a knife from a shop shelf, and so these steps to make this more difficult will be welcomed by the local community."

Knife rule changes

- Retailers will apply their policies for age restricted sales such as Think 21 or Challenge 25 to ensure age verification checks take place and knives will only be sold (or supplied) once they are satisfied the customer is 18 or over. This will include proof of age checks for in-store sales, collection or point of delivery situations.
- Action to be taken in-store and online to remind customers and staff that knives are age restricted products. This means that knives will only be sold (or supplied) once age verification to Think 21 or Challenge 25 has taken place. Supervisory support to be provided where appropriate.
- Retailers will ensure knives are displayed and packaged securely as appropriate to minimise risk. This will include retailers taking practical and proportionate action to restrict accessibility and avoid immediate use, reduce the possibility of injury, and prevent theft.
- All staff selling or approving sales of knives will be provided with training, with that training being refreshed at least once every year. This includes all staff involved in the sales transaction up to and including delivery. The principles above will be applied as relevant to each retailer's business model in discussion with their primary authority.
- eBay is committed to a safe online marketplace and currently prohibits the sale of all knives on ebay.co.uk, with the exception of cutlery.
- Amazon requires that all third-party sellers on its marketplace comply with the law on the sale of knives, including clearly listing products as for over 18s and requiring age verification on delivery.

Alongside this, the Home Office will:

- Work with the police in co-operation with trading standards (and the Better Regulation Delivery Office and relevant codes) to deliver test purchases across a range of retailers in six months' time, and to feedback information to retailers head office on the results to aid and understand progress.
- Explore further the application of primary authority for knife sales to provide businesses with assured advice and promote consistent approach to compliance with knife legislation.
- Explore the use of Online Identity Exchange and Trust Elevate as a secure, reliable age verification tool for knife sales in the near future.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

MONEY MATTERS

Tax changes coming soon

2016-17 tax issues

AS we approach April 6, 2016, it is a good time to take a look at some of the tax changes that will be introduced from this date. The much-discussed new dividend tax changes come into play from this date and we have also just seen the third Budget within the space of 12 months. The budget promised to be a difficult one because of June's EU referendum and recent disappointing economic results. Here we set out a flavour of what lays in store for you in the coming tax year.

Personal Allowance and Tax Bands

There will be the usual increases in allowances and tax bands for 2016-17. The Personal Allowance, which is the amount that an individual can earn before paying tax, will be increased to £11,000 (£11,500 in 2017/18). However this decreases by £1 for every £2 of income in excess of £100,000. If you can reduce your income below £100,000, eg by making a pension contribution or charitable gift, you should benefit from the full allowance.

The higher-rate tax threshold will increase to £43,000 for 2016/17 (£45,000 for 2017/18) with the additional rate remaining at £150,000 for 2016/17.

Savings

A Personal Savings Allowance will be introduced, which means that basic-rate taxpayers (earning less than £43,000 a year) will not incur a tax charge on the first £1,000 of savings interest. Higher-rate taxpayers are still entitled to the new scheme, but for them the threshold is £500. Additional-rate taxpayers will not receive a Personal Savings Allowance.

Pensions

The Lifetime Allowance will decrease from £1.25m to £1m from April 2016.

Director Loan Accounts

The loans to participators tax rate will be increased from April 6, 2016, to 32.5% - this is to keep it in line with the higher rate of tax charged on dividend income.

Dividend Taxation

As previously stated, there are multiple changes happening to dividend taxation after April 6.

The first £5,000 of dividend income in each tax year will become tax free, with sums above that taxed at 7.5% for basic-rate taxpayers, 32.5% for higher-rate taxpayers and 38.1% for additional-rate taxpayers.

No tax will be deducted at source, with taxpayers using the self-assessment system to pay tax that is due on dividends.

This is likely to have an effect on owner-managed companies where a shareholder is currently a basic-rate taxpayer and may not have to complete a Self-Assessment Tax Return or pay any tax. If their dividend income in 2016/17 exceeds the tax-free £5,000 limit and their personal allowances, they will now need to complete tax returns to declare that income to HMRC and pay any tax liability. It will, therefore, be important to review the position to see if a return is needed going forward.

Marriage Allowance

This can be claimed from April 6, 2015, and arises where a taxpayer has a spouse/civil partner whose income is such that they do not use their full personal allowance. They can transfer 10% of that allowance to their spouse/civil partner as long as the recipient is not a higher-rate taxpayer.

A New Digital Tax Age

If you like to keep your tax details fully up to date, there are plans to introduce "pay-as-you-go" tax accounts, which mean tax can be paid as and when income is received. This will result in tax payments for the self-employed being more like those of PAYE employees. These services are continuing to be developed through 2016.

MONEY MATTERS

	2017/18	2018/19	2019/20	2020/21
% interest allowed as deduction	75	50	25	0
% interest given as a relief at 20%	25	50	75	100

Rental Income

The wear and tear allowance will no longer be available for furnished property. This will be superseded by expense claims for replacing certain items. The initial purchase of furnishings cannot be claimed but replacing them can be claimed. Repairs can still be claimed in the usual way.

Rent-a-room relief will increase from £4,250 to £7,500. This relief is shared for jointly-owned property.

From April 2017, there will also be a major change in the treatment of loan/mortgage interest on capital used to purchase investment properties (this includes single buy-to-lets). The interest payments on these loans will be restricted and by 2020 they will no longer be an allowable expense. Over the next five years, the interest deduction will gradually reduce by 20% each year. An important aspect to note is that the reduced allowable amount will not simply be an expense deduction, but instead will be treated as a tax reducer.

This may have a substantial impact on property owners where the annual interest is significant in relation to the rental income they receive.

The example below left shows the impact on a higher-rate taxpayer in five years' time.

	2016/17 - £	2020/21 - £
Gross rents received	20,000	20,000
Expenses	(1,200)	(1,200)
Mortgage interest	(13,000)
Net taxable profit	5,800	18,800
Tax at 40%	2,320	7,520
Less interest relief at 20% on £13,000		2,600
Net tax liability on rental income	2,320	4,920
Tax increase		2,600

Example

The tax bill has gone up by 112%! It may also be there are other implications such as losing child benefit allowance or personal allowances.

Moving existing properties into a company structure is also being considered by some landlords, but the stamp duty, capital gains tax and other costs are all potential deterrents. Professional advice should always be taken before considering such a course of action.

Capital Gains Tax

There will be a cut in the main rates of capital gains tax from 2016/17 to 20% for higher- and additional-rate taxpayers and 10% for other taxpayers. However, it is important to note the existing rates will continue for gains on residential property and carried interests.

Buy-to-let homeowners will see this as another attack from the Chancellor in the form of a "capital gains tax surcharge".

THE MGROUP

Other important points include

- From 2018, National Insurance will be charged on termination payments (redundancy etc.) worth over £30,000
- There will be a new lifetime ISA from April 2017 for individuals under the age of 40, which will attract 25% bonus from the Government subject to a savings limit of £4,000 per annum. The standard ISA investment limit will rise to £20,000 at the same time.
- From April 2018, Class 2 National Insurance will be abolished for the self-employed.

The above points have been highlighted by Peter Smith, a partner at The MGroup Partnership, an efficient and friendly firm of chartered certified accountants and taxation advisors with offices in Witney and Oxford. Peter can be contacted at p.smith@theMgroup.co.uk if you would like to discuss your tax affairs or for more information please contact The MGroup on (Oxford) 01865 552925 or (Witney) 01993 776476.

Gyles Brandreth's 'Word Power!'

HE'S a chap who belongs to a very exclusive group - people who have managed to tread carefully and carve out a career in theatres, and in that theatre of theatres, the House of Commons.

By James Richings

But it's in the former that Gyles Brandreth is now most at home.

The former MP and star of the One Show is bringing 'Word Power!' back by popular demand to Didcot's Cornerstone on Saturday, April 2.

The two-hour show will see the 68-year-old discuss language, from old words to new.

But there will be one kind of wordplay off the menu.

"I don't like anyone using clichés because clichés are lazy," he said.

"During the last election I thought I'd go mad if I heard another politician talking about 'hard working families'.

"I like language that is fresh and surprising. And the word 'iconic' is overused.

"The word 'passionate' is also overused.

"I passed a white van today. On the side it said: 'Passionate about plumbing'. Please!"

And it's safe to say Gyles' love of words would have been nicely nurtured in Oxford - as a New College student, orator and president of Oxford University's Student Union, editor of student newspaper Isis, and the list goes on.

"The English language is rich because it isn't pure," Gyles said

"New words are arriving all the time and lots of them have come along with new technology.

"I like acronyms like YOLO and I like fun abbreviations.

"RIDIC is a bit ridiculous, but why not? I love new words.

"Do you ever MOSH? (I do!)."

"I met Miley Cyrus in a lift at the BBC, and she is famous for her 'twerking'," Gyles said.

"She seemed to think she had invented the word but I told her 'twerking' was what's known as a "portmanteau" word, combining two words in one, and has been around since the early 1800s.

"It's a mix of twist and jerk.

"She also kindly said she'd come to see my show, so if you come. look out for Miley as you may be there on the same night."

After the Tory MP lost his seat in 1997 when Labour won the general election by a landslide, Gyles considered what to do next.

A recommendation to go to the Edinburgh Festival with a show went well.

He's since appeared on Just a Minute, QI, Have I Got News for You, in West End shows to name a few.

Cornerstone tickets cost £19.50 or £18 for concessions.

The show starts at 7.30pm.

Teacher turned comic

• Romesh Ranganathan

ROMESH Rangantahan has gone from maths teacher to award-winning comedian over the past few years.

By James Richings

So he comes armed with tales of classroom antics to the Oxford Playhouse with his show 'Irrational' on Tuesday, April 5.

"It is about my viewpoints on things when I'm trying to work out whether I'm being irrational or whether I'm the only one that's got it right," Romesh said.

"I talk about Gogglebox being a sign of the end of days, though its popularity suggests that I'm wrong and everyone else is right.

"But the idea that people are entertaining when they watch television is a fallacy.

"They need to set up a camera in my room and watch a chubby man vegetating in silence."

A former head of sixth form at Hazelwick School in Crawley, his national breakthrough in the comedy scene came three years ago,

The 38-year-old is now also a TV presenter on a new science show called 'It's Not Rocket Science' with fellow comedian Ben Miller and Countdown presenter Rachel Riley, and has also been called up to appear on various panel and game shows while touring.

But in comedy it is as simple as Romesh enjoying performing to an audience to make them laugh.

And since he is known for coming across as sarcastic while delivering his punch lines, Romesh hopes the audience can see past his cranky demeanour.

"People say that I'm quite grumpy and negative on stage and that I surely can't be like that off it, but I really am," Romesh said.

"Up on stage is basically me without the filters and concerns about what people will think about me, they're removed and I'm expressing what I really think.

"I've done bits in the past where I've perhaps talked about my kids annoying me and you hope that the audience realise that you do actually love your children.

"You can still be a good parent and be frustrated by your kids but when you first say that for the first time and don't get it across properly, you can just seem like a horrible person."

Tickets cost £15 or £13 for concessions.

The show – which is suitable for over 14s – starts at 8pm.

Kris Drever

SCOTTISH folk musician Kris Drever will be at The Old Fire Station in Oxford tomorrow night, April 1.

He arrives with his third solo album, 'If Wishes Were Horses' for a debut gig at the George Street venue.

"One thing that's great when the audience appreciates your work is the love," Kris told the Guardian.

"It's a great way to share music and it brings out the best in most performers."

His first solo album in 2006, 'Black Water', put the musician on the folk scene map, and one year later he was crowned the coveted 'best Breakthrough Act' at BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

It was through his first album that Kris learnt how to take centre stage.

He added: "It was a great opportunity to get out and learn how to be a solo performer as someone who had up until then been very much a sideman."

The show starts at 8.15pm.

Leaper: A Fish Tale

By James Richings

AN UNDERWATER adventure about a girl's friendship with fish will be brought to life with puppets and folk music.

'Leaper: A Fish Tale', visits the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot this Sunday, April 3, and the Oxford Playhouse two weeks later on Saturday April 16.

The family show, suitable for over threes, is set in a salmon nursery in Scotland.

A dad nurtures young fish to the stage in life when they must start their journey from river to ocean.

One day his daughter decides to help, but falls into the river with the young salmon and is swept away with them.

Although scared, she embarks on a magical adventure and faces a number of sea monsters.

"It is a very real modern fable, a cautionary tale perhaps, which should thrill and surprise," producer Hal Chambers told the Guardian.

"This is an underwater adventure and Leaper is a beautiful, inspiring and funny piece of puppetry for all of the family.

"The show has a strong environmental strand and should provoke lots of exciting debate between child and parent afterwards."

Performed by the Tucked In Theatre Company, the production has features aimed at keeping children's attention, including coloured lights and various puppet characters

Hal said: "It is absolutely vital that children go and watch live shows.

"Theatre brings people together and a live theatre experience can have a very positive effect on a child.

"I remember the first play that I ever saw 'The Selfish Shellfish' by David Wood, and here I am making stories today"

He added: "What is so brilliant about children is that they say exactly what they think, often during the performance itself.

"So if you hear a child gasp or cheer or say something supportive it warms the heart!

"They are the best audience in the world because their reactions are so pure."

Tickets cost £9.50 or £7.50.

The Station Road production starts at 2pm.

All-weather entertainment!

WE had arranged to take our four grandchildren out for a day over the October half term week as we do every year.

This year the weather was not looking too good, so we looked for somewhere that would be appropriate for dry and/or wet weather.

We decided upon 4 Kingdoms in Thatcham, although we had never visited there before it looked ideal as it has a large indoor play area as well as outside facilities.

When we arrived it had recently been raining and was rather windy, so we started our day in the huge barn which contained climbing frames, go karts, a ball pit and animal pens. The children were keen to see the animals (we have four grandchildren aged from 3 to 12). When we got to the animal pens there were pigs, ponies, rabbits, sheep, and, of course Fred the ferret! Fred was being walked at that time and the children took turns to walk him around the pens. The keeper Carl was so passionate about his animals and took great delight in telling us all about Fred and his friends.

When we got to the animal pens there were pigs, ponies, rabbits, sheep, and, of course Fred the ferret!

One other thing to note is that once you have paid your entrance ticket, everything is free, which, considering all the children made good use of all the rides, was excellent value for money. The go karts proved very popular indeed!

After lunch the weather improved and we ventured out into the large outdoor area, with bouncy castles, slides, more animals, trampolines just to mention a few!

Later in the afternoon we did the 'spooky walk' which was specifically for Halloween, very scary!

Overall we found the staff there extremely friendly and helpful, especially with the children, who thoroughly enjoyed the whole day. We will be returning there again, maybe on a warmer day where we will be able to enjoy the outside facilities even more.

I would thoroughly recommend a visit there, it is perfect for children of all ages, including me!

Kia Sorento 2.2 CRDi KX-3

• Kia Sorento 2.2 CRDi KX-3

By James Richings

ONCE again Kia has shown how to make a car that was good before now even better.

Engine: The Sorento is packing a decent 2.2 litre diesel engine that produces 197bhp @3,800rpm and a massive 311 lb Ft of torque from just 1,800rpm. The engine meets all the new Euro6 emission requirements and is Kia's fourth generation common-rail fuel injection unit.

Performance is a peach - the Sorento will go from 0-62 in just nine seconds and a top speed of 124mph, which for me is brilliant for such a large vehicle. Fuel consumption is around 46.3mpg (combined). Also, whilst driving all the way down to Norfolk – I got the chance to test out the Sorento's MPG figures & torque response and I have to say I could not fault it one little bit.

On the road: The new Sorento features the new all-wheel-drive system which I saw in the Sportage some time ago. The system continually monitors all the wheels and driving conditions which makes for a good sense of control on and off-road. Kia has also revised the front suspension which has given the Sorento a new lease of life and makes for a more comfortable ride and much improved handling overall.

Inside: The materials, fit, finish and technology are really rather good. I have said time and time again; Kia know how to make good interiors, and they have given the Sorento lots of soft-touch surfaces along with a satin polished feel.

Equipment inside is high-spec with the addition of a six-speaker stereo with DAB, tinted glass, 17" alloys, cruise control, all-round electric windows, cornering lights and LED daytime running light. And that's the tip of the iceberg.

Safety: The new Sorento has a max five-star rating in the Euro-NCAP safety tests, along with a stronger bodyshell and a comprehensive list of safety features like; EBD, brake assist, automatic vehicle hold, hill-start assist control which prevents wheelspin or rollback, and six airbags (twin-front and side curtains as standard).

To sum up: Another excellent offering from Kia that is practical, spacious and well kitted out.

Price: £35,845 RRP not including fitted options.

Wembley match awaits for Appleton's roaring United

By Loughlan Campbell

THE long wait is finally over for U's fans as Oxford United will finally take to Wembley's hallowed turf in their clash with Barnsley on Sunday to decide who takes home the Johnstone's Paint Trophy (JPT).

The Yellows have cruised to their spot in the final, ousting bitter rivals Swindon Town, fellow League Two sides Dagenham & Redbridge and Yeovil Town before bettering League One's Millwall in a double header.

In a season where Michael Appleton's side have charged to the top three places in a bid to snatch promotion to League One, the JPT has been a welcome side story.

A win against Barnsley would surely be the crowning jewel in Appleton's managerial career so far, with more than 32,500 fans expected to make a yellow wall in one half of Wembley.

The U's come into the encounter on the back of subsequent draws, with John Lundstram receiving his marching orders in Good Friday's 1-1 draw with Stevenage, while United held on against a fiery Cambridge United side in a goalless showing on Easter Monday.

Oxford failed in appealing Lundstram's red card for the showdown, with Joe Skarz and Johnny Mullins also potential doubts for the game.

Barnsley head into the encounter off the back of a 1-0 away win at Port Vale on Easter Monday after being held to a goalless draw by Scunthorpe on Good Friday.

The Tykes' run to the final was a little bit more arduous, having to better League One sides Wigan Athletic and Fleetwood Town on penalties in both the area semi-finals and finals in order to book their Wembley place.

The last time the Yellows met the Tykes was back in January 1999 where Oxford ran out 1-0 winners in Football League Division One with Dean Windass bagging the goal.

The U's best result over Barnsley came in the same division back in May 1997, when the winger Joey Beauchamp bagged a brace as they ran out 5-1 winners at the Manor Ground.

Three defeats in a row for North Leigh

NORTH LEIGH's calamitous end to the season shows no signs of ending soon as they fell to their third successive defeat in a 2-0 loss at Bishops Cleeve on Saturday.

The Millers fell to 10th in the Southern League Division One & West - their lowest standing this year so far - after they shipped goals from Kirk Layton and Shane Bumphrey in the final 10 minutes.

The game at Kayte Lane began in terrible conditions.

Leigh's Lewis White had to be alert to block a counter-attack from Cleeve on 10 minutes before George Seacole's attempted lob looped over the bar for the Millers on 39 minutes.

Cleeve had the wind advantage in the second half and Elliot Kennedy just shot wide on 49 minutes.

Ten minutes later, Cleeve's Jordan Lymn nearly scored after the wind caught his long pass and Leigh 'keeper Ben Taylor had to swat away the shot as it crept near the goal.

The goals then came late on as Layton's speculative shot from the right flew into the top corner on 81 minutes before substitute Bumphrey headed in from an Aaron Drake cross.

The result means the Millers have lost five of their last seven matches in the league.

Smith hopes to carry on form

OXFORD'S Bradley Smith hopes to carry his strong form into round two of the MotoGP World Championship for the Argentine Grand Prix after finishing eighth in Doha, Qatar on March 20.

His finish at the Qatar Grand Prix marked his 25th successive point-scoring race, giving him the second longest run of current riders behind Valentino Rossi.

Speaking after the race, Smith said: "I was pleased with the race result, but the start was a complete disaster, I knew that things could only get better."

"We stayed focused and in the end we came away with eighth position, which is already one place better than last year.

"We are only one point away from our target, which is to be the top satellite bike and so we will try to rectify that in Argentina."

The 25-year-old started from 11th place but quickly moved up and battled with Aleix Espargaro for much of the race, before passing the Spaniard on the final lap.

Smith currently sits in eighth place in the standings ahead of the Argentine GP this weekend.

U's held twice in Easter showdowns

OXFORD United had to settle for two points from two games after a tricky Easter weekend.

The U's were up against it at home to Stevenage on Good Friday when John Lundstram flew in on Michael Tonge, leading to an early dismissal.

The visitors came into the encounter on the back of five defeats, and were lifted by the sending off as Oxford failed to muster a shot on target in the first 45 minutes.

However, they were handed a glittering opportunity in extra time when Danny Hylton was hauled to the floor by 'keeper Jamie Jones and Liam Sercombe stepped up to take the spot kick.

Unfortunately, it was blocked by Jones who guessed correctly to his right.

By Loughlan Campbell

Sercombe then made up for this error just before the hour mark, perfectly timing his run into the box to allow Kemar Roofe to clip the ball in for the midfielder to smash home.

However, the U's fans' delight was short-lived as just 10 minutes later Byron Harrison fired home after being set up by Greg Luer in a swift counter-attack with the score ending up 1-1.

Following the draw, Oxford then headed to Cambridge United on Easter Monday in which Michael Appleton's side took home a point from the Abbey Stadium.

Jordan Bowery lifted a shot over the bar after powering through early on before Cambridge's Luke Berry headed wide some efforts early on in the first place.

Johnny Mullins lasted just 19 minutes in the encounter, with Sam Long brought in to replace him.

The sides headed into the break with both teams' defences looking solid before Chris Maguire shot wide from 20 yards out just two minutes into the second half.

Josh Ruffels had to be blocked after a bursting run into the box later on and Danny Hylton was convinced he'd won a penalty after a challenge in the Cambridge penalty area.

All in all it was a tough weekend for a lethargic Oxford United squad to overcome but for the time being they remain in second in League Two as the hunt for promotion continues.

City suffer shock defeat to Dragons

OXFORD CITY's play-off hopes took a brief nosedive after losing 2-0 against basement boys Basingstoke Town on Saturday.

New Dragons' boss Terry Brown grabbed the win in his first game in charge and Liam Enver-Marum bagged both goals as Oxford's David King was sent off for a two-footed challenge.

It was a lacklustre performance from the off for City with 'keeper Laurie Walker having to block out a Simon Dunn shot early on and a volley from Reece Connolly.

A long kick from Walker very nearly snatched the lead for Oxford after it coasted through the air before bouncing onto Basingstoke's crossbar.

King was then dismissed just four minutes before half-time for a challenge on Dunn.

Enver-Marum slid the ball into the net for the opener on 51 minutes after Tom Bird played in the forward.

Connolly then blazed another shot over the bar before Enver-Marum was gifted the chance to poke home the second when Lee Henderson's back pass was charged down.

City's Declan Benjamin went close with an effort late on but in the end it was a poor performance all-round for the Blues who dropped out of the play-off places after Maidenhead United beat Hayes & Yeading United 5-2 on Monday.

Justin Merritt's men played Truro City last night at Court Place Farm as the Guardian went to press.

Freds falter in Banbury derby

WANTAGE Town fell to a 2-0 defeat to Oxfordshire rivals Banbury United, who moved back to being top of the table on Easter Monday.

Goals from Banbury's Charlie Wise and Felipe Barcelos bagged the win for the Puritans on a very boggy pitch at Alfredian Park.

Mark Bell fired wide for the Puritans after just eight minutes, and just five minutes later he found Ricky Johnson near the box whose shot was deflected just over the bar.

The Freds' danger man Sam Collier then clipped an effort wide on 18 minutes from a tight angle before Wantage 'keeper Ed Cavanagh fumbled a free kick from 30 yards and a defender hacked clear.

The score remained goalless at the interval but Banbury then grabbed a penalty shortly after the restart when Bell was brought down in the box.

However, Cavanagh guessed correctly and saved the spot-kick before two minutes later the ball was ruled to have crossed the line from a Wise header off a Bell cross to give United the lead.

Banbury effectively sealed the points on 73 minutes when Barcelos was played over the top from a goal-kick and the Puritan lobbed the ball home.

The Freds have four league games left to play.

Blues bashed in loss to Scorpions

OXFORD RL fell to their third successive defeat of the Kingstone Press League 1 season on Good Friday as the South West Scorpions snatched a 38-20 win at Iffley Road.

The game saw Oxford bid adieu to Iffley Road ahead of their move to Tilsley Park and the Scorpions took the lead inside 13 minutes when Luke Nelmes crossed under the sticks and Paul Emanuelli converted.

Dai Evans then crossed after intercepting a loose pass with Emanuelli scuppering the kick for a 10-0 Scorpions lead.

Connor Hughes got Oxford back into it on 31 minutes with a try that he failed to convert before teammate Aaron Dobek went under the sticks and Hughes provided the extra points.

Heading into the second half, the Scorpions took charge as Jordan Sheridan and Christiaan Roets both crossed with Emanuelli adding the extras.

Evans then snatched his second of the day before Andrew Hoggins grounded a reprieve for Oxford.

Greg Wilde was on hand to ground the ball for another Scorpion try which Emanuelli Converted before Oxford hit back through a Danny Allan try and a Hughes conversion.

The game was gone for Oxford and Yannic Parker completed the scoring on 80 minutes with a try that Emanuelli missed the conversion for.

The result meant Oxford's league season has led to three defeats from three games.

Up next for Tim Rumford's side is a trip to Keyleigh Cougars next Sunday.

Nine wins on the trot as Kidlington go top of the table

KIDLINGTON battled a soaked away pitch to trump Tuffley Rovers and soar to top of the table in style on Easter Monday in a 3-0 win.

Action started quickly in the first half as the Greens strove to extend their lead over second-placed Thatcham Town.

Despite valiant early attempts from Kidlington, it took until the 40th minute for the first goal when Anaclet Odhiambo made a run on the right when he was fed the ball and cut the ball back into the box.

The cross was met by Lewis Brownhill's perfect connection that kicked off scoring and put Kidlington one step closer to winning the league.

All-out attack followed from the Greens at the start of the second half when Brownhill crossed to Anaclet Odhiambo who headed in on 50 minutes to double the lead.

The third and final goal was picked up when Eric Odhiambo was brought down just outside the box and Coyle stepped up for the free kick.

A powerful swerving rocket of a shot left the stunned Rovers 'keeper Aaron Taylor without a prayer.

The result puts Kidlington four points safe over Thatcham with one game in hand as Martin Wilkinson's side have just five games to play.

They face Bracknell Town at home on Saturday knowing that if they win the game, beat Wokingham & Emmbrook and Lydney Town next week then they will be confirmed champions of the Hellenic Premier League next Saturday in what would be a huge achievement.

Player-manager bags permanent role with Didcot at the Loop

By Loughlan Campbell

ANDY BALLARD has expressed his happiness after bagging the Didcot Town FC manager job on a permanent basis.

The 30-year-old, who also plays as a midfielder for the club, took the job on a temporary basis in December after the surprise departures of Ian Concannon and Jamie Heapy.

He has previously outlined his desire to remain with the club, and the Guardian revealed last month that he was in contract talks with chairman John Bailey.

The announcement about his appointment came ahead of Didcot's 2-0 win over Wantage Town at the Loop Meadow on Saturday where Jack Self bagged a brace.

Ballard told the Guardian: "I'm really, really happy with the decision.

"Me and Ian (Lovegrove, assistant manager) have really enjoyed ourselves since taking over.

"I sat down with John a few weeks ago where he offered me the position and it feels great to be continuing my time with the club.

"We have been very pleased with the club's recent run of form and we're now aiming to take this club to the highest possible position this season."

Under Ballard, the club have experienced a strong run of recent results with the Diddy only losing two of 14 games so far this year and snatching eight wins.

The manager plans to keep his playing boots for the foreseeable future until next season and is eyeing to beef up the playing squad over the summer ahead of a play-off push next season.

Didcot have got themselves to eighth in the table this season but look unlikely to mount a play-off challenge with five games left to play and a eight point gap to sixth-placed Swindon Supermarine.

Ballard added: "We'll be looking to bring in some more numbers this year in order to get some fresh faces in the squad and give us greater depth to have the right balance for both league and cup games.

"I think we'll need to bring in a goalscorer as well and with the right players, I don't think there's really any reason why we can't finish in the play-off places next year."
